

Scott's Emulsion

of Cod Liver Oil is the means of life and enjoyment of life to thousands of men, women and children.

When appetite fails, it restores it. When food is a burden, it lifts the burden.

When you lose flesh, it brings the plumpness of health.

When work is hard and duty is heavy, it makes life bright.

It is the thin edge of the wedge; the thick end is food. But what is the use of food when you hate it and can't digest it?

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is the food that makes you forget your stomach.

Special From Portland.

To Wisconsin people, and there are thousands of them in Oregon, it seems very much like home to pick up the papers and read what F. H. Scribner, president of the Wisconsin Butter-makers' Association, has to say after several weeks' stay here. Like Wisconsin in past years, this state is beginning the transition from a timber to a dairying state, and from an annual dairy output of $5,000,000 five years ago, jumped to $17,000,000 in 1907. Mr. Scribner was enthusiastic and said: "There is no spot in our great United States that can excel Oregon in dairying. This is my conclusion after spending six weeks investigating several of her beautiful valleys. I wish to say to the farmers and dairymen of this section that I fear they don't fully appreciate the wonderful opportunity here for the raising of feeds best adapted to the dairy industry, and the excellent climatic conditions for the growth and development of stock. You should reach here the climax of productiveness."

Oregonians listen to Mr. Scribner with lots of respect, for he was the breeder of "Loretta D.," owned by the Ladd estate, Portland, Oregon, the cow that won first prize in the hundred and twenty days milking test at the St. Louis Fair in 1904.

YOUR OWN FACE.

Do You Think You Would Recognize It on Another Person?

"How strange it is," said the philosopher, "that the person for whom you care most on earth, the one you see oftenest and who receives your most constant attention is the one whose countenance is least familiar to you."

"Who is that?" asked the visitor.

"Yourself," said the philosopher. "It is a fact that if people could be duplicated and could meet themselves in the street very few would recognize themselves. We look at ourselves many times during the 365 days of the year. We say our eyes are blue or whatever color they may be, our hair brown, our chin peaked, our forehead high. We know every lineament of our face from constant study and attention, yet when we turn away from the mirror we cannot conjure up a picture of ourselves. We know just how our friends and even acquaintances look. In fancy we can see them sitting so or standing so and their varying expression under different circumstances is clear to us, even though we have not seen them for years. But when it comes to ourselves we cannot even fill in the outline of the picture. We may laugh, we may cry, we may frown, but we do not know how we look while we are doing it. Photographs do not help us. We have never seen ourselves in the flesh. Mirrors and pictures are poor aids when we sit down and try to see ourselves with the mind's eye. That is why people are so deeply interested in anybody who is said to resemble them. Just say to a man, 'I know somebody who looks for all the world like you,' and he will never rest until he sees that person. Then if the likeness is really true he will own that up to that time he had no conception of how he really looked."

The visitor smiled wistfully. "I wish you wouldn't talk like that," she said. "It makes me feel so uncanny. I am almost afraid of myself."

THE BOY WHO DIDN'T.

And Now He Probably Regrets His Little Plan.

"Please, sir," said the office boy, "may I get away this afternoon?" "What's wrong?" asked the great financier. "Is your grandmother dead?" Little Willie had been taught that honesty was always the best policy. He was a good boy. He never sneaked stamps from his employer, and he never threw the pretty typewriter into fits by whispering to her that he had just seen a mouse scot under her desk. Being a truthful boy, little Willie replied:

"No, sir. I ain't got no grandmother. But the club that's in first place is going to play here today, and I'd like to see the game."

The old gentleman stared at him helplessly for a moment and then drew from his pocket $2, which he handed to the boy.

Ah, reader, you have already guessed that the great man felt in duty bound to encourage such frankness—but wait.

"Here," said Henry Hardrocks, "here's your week's wages. Don't come back any more. A boy that can't get up even a poor excuse on such an occasion as the present one would never amount to anything in this business."

Thus do we learn that in being its own reward virtue continues to have few competitors. — Chicago Record-Herald

A Love Scene.

"Before I went away you seemed to love me."

"Yes?"

"And now you are different?"

"You are mistaken—utterly mistaken."

"Are you not different?"

"No; I am indifferent."

But even that did not seem to satisfy him. Some men are hard to please. — Cleveland Leader

Summer Barnstormers.

"What's them thar actor folks doing prowling around in the hot sun?" asked the postmaster of Bacon Ridge.

"They say they want to get the lay of the town," said the village cutup.

"Waal, they needn't be in any hurry about that. They'll get the lay of the town and the country both tonight. The boys are out buying up every egg within four miles." — Detroit Tribune

Gloomy Outlook.

"What are you worried about, Rastus?"

"I's worried 'bout rain, dat's whut I's worried 'bout, an' I reckons I's gwinter keep worried all summer."

"But it is almost sure to rain before long."

"Yessuh. But when it do it's almost sure to be too much or not enough." — Washington Star.

The Human Mimosa.

"Closely is such a stingy chump. He goes around rattling the dollars in his pocket, but he never spends a cent."

"Yes, I have noticed that too. Do you know why he reminds me of a sensitive plant?"

"No. Why?"

"Why, he wilts every time you touch him." — Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

He Spoke Too Soon.

"Look here, old chap, forgive me for speaking of it, but you really ought to know. Your wife doesn't play a square game of bridge."

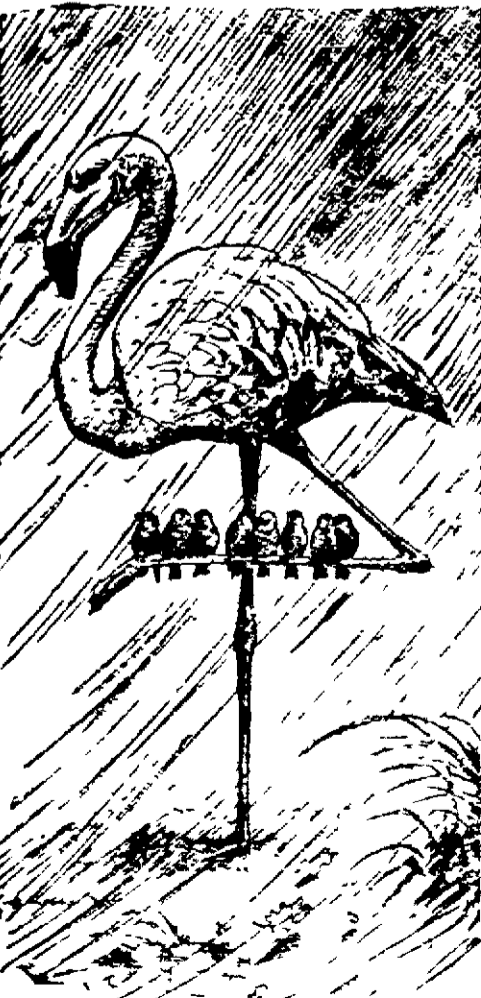

"My dear fellow, that's a compliment to you. It shows that you play such a corking game that she couldn't afford to." — New York Life.

A Pointer For Percy.

Tess—Percy Vere was telling me that he still hopes to have the luck to win you.

Jess—Well, Percy will find that it takes more than luck to win me. I'm no raffle. — Philadelphia Press.

Excuse Enough.

"He spoke very harshly of you yesterday."

"I can't blame him. He owes me money and hasn't any way of paying it." — New Orleans Times Democrat.

DAMES AND DAUGHTERS.

"I wish the Lord had never made the north pole," sighed Mrs. Robert D. Peaty recently.

Mrs. John P. Newman, the bishop's widow, has given to the Methodist Foreign Missionary society property in Jerusalem valued at $75,000.

Mrs. Selma C. Carter, widow of the late Levi Carter of Omaha, has donated to the city $50,000 for the purchase of Lake Nakoma and 260 acres of land around it for a permanent park.

Lady Warwick has not lost any of her influence as a social leader on account of her socialistic principles. Indeed, the king has complimented her more than once on her earnestness and sincerity.

May Murray, a successful actress in New York, has forsaken the theatrical field to control the coat room privilege in a big hotel, paying $8,000 a year for the business. She expects to receive at least $10,000 a year in fees and tips.

Dr. Aletta H. Jacobs, who was elected president of the National Suffrage association of the Netherlands, was the first woman physician in her country and in order to enter the medical university had to get permission from her government.

Miss Rose Becker has been appointed a claim agent and United States pension attorney for Missouri. She has been a well known business woman in St. Louis for a number of years, being both a notary public and an insurance agent.

Emily Mason, daughter of a former minister to France and an international belle in antebellum days, is ninety-three, yet is as interested in the world at large as she was fifty years ago. She lives in a handsome colonial mansion in Georgetown and holds her receptions.

The Royal Box.

Nicholas II., czar of all the Russians, is forty years old.

King Edward is a model landlord and when at Sandringham spends some time every day with his agent and takes an active personal interest in the estate and in the well being of the people.

Princess Philippine of Wurtemberg, who was an archduchess of Austria, makes rubber stockings and other aids for the wounded, and she receives royalties from several of the war ministers of Europe.

Almost alone among the sovereigns of Europe, Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria-Hungary makes no use of automobiles. The heir apparent, Archduke Francis Ferdinand, is a most enthusiastic motorist, and so are several other members of the imperial family. But so far the emperor has kept to his horses and carriages.

Tales of Cities.

Columbus, O., makes more buggies than any other place.

Liverpool makes nearly $800,000 per year by municipal trading.

New York city pays a large funeral bill. It costs the city $32.50 to bury each of the unclaimed bodies that pass through the morgue, and there are about 9,400 of them in the course of a year.

In 1790 the population of Baltimore was only 13,503. It was fifty years, or in 1840, before Baltimore had climbed up into the 100,000 class. She could first count 500,000 in 1900, and today the official records disclose a population of 689,910, according to the Baltimore directory.

Animal Oddities.

A squirrel can bite harder than a dog.

The ostrich has been known to travel as fast as a mile a minute.

Cattle and sheep will not fatten alone. They must feed in company.

The frog has, like the camel, the power of storing up moisture, which enables it to pass through times of drought which would otherwise prove fatal.

Swallows are said to be the only birds that take their food from the air and drink when flying. On first arriving in spring the birds feed upon gnats and such insects, but as summer advances winged beetles are also eagerly snapped up.

Canada's Big Cities.

Canada's six principal cities, with their population, as given by the census of 1903, are:

Montreal, 267,730, about equaling Newark, N. J.

Toronto, 208,040, about equaling Louisville, Ky.

Quebec, 68,840, about equaling Oakland, Cal.

Ottawa, 59,928, about equaling Evansville, Ind.

Hamilton, 52,634, about equaling Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

Winnipeg, 42,340, about equaling Akron, O.

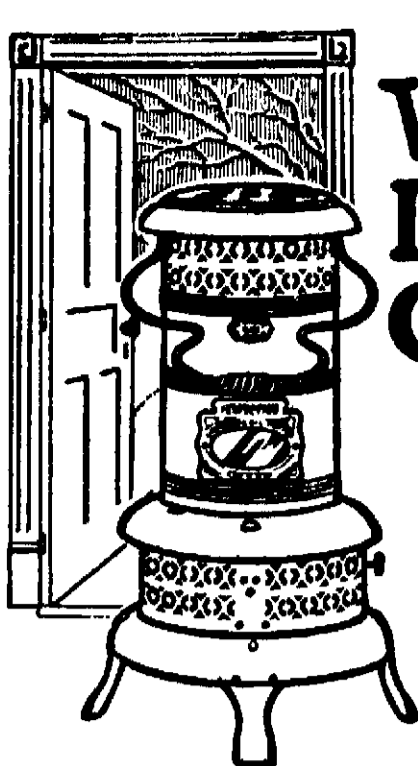

Flower and Tree.

Roses seem to be the favorite hundred species of flowers.

Air is essential to growing peas plants. Peas grow in a vacuum die in three days.

Yew trees were once planted in churchyards to prevent the dead from coming out and so preserve them for the making of bows and arrows.

As trees grow old they are not really living. After a century they show faint signs, two centuries old, of the surgeon, and he is not far ahead of the woodlouse, who does the same work as the surgeon, but more thoroughly.

State Lines.

Since 1872 New York has been carried three times by the Democrats and six times by the Republicans.

Vermont was the first state to enter the Union after the original thirteen. This was March 4, 1791.

In the matter of paper production New York, Maine and Wisconsin rank first, second and third respectively.

Vermont pays the lowest salary to its governor ($1,500) and Illinois the highest ($12,000). New York's chief executive gets $10,000.

Fencing With Umbrellas.

Recently a French publication printed a picture of some American girls fencing with umbrellas and stated that they were trying to acquire thus the necessary skill and assurance to parry, with a simple gesture, an attack of Apaches.

It also stated that this sport was not born in America; that for several years in France a noted fencing mistress, Mme. Guillemot, at the same time that she taught fencing with the sword for hygienic reasons and for personal defense, also taught her pupils to "play" with the umbrella.

The article finishes by saying that it is certainly "piquant" that this modern application of an ancient sport was taught by a Parisienne long before America claimed the original idea.

How to Cure a Cold.

Be as careful as you can you will occasionally take cold, and when you do, get a medicine of known reliability, one that has an established reputation and that is certain to effect a cure. Such a medicine is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has gained a world wide reputation by its remarkable cures of this most common ailment, and can always be depended upon. It acts on nature's plan, relieves the lungs, aids expectoration, opens the secretations and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. During the many years in which it has been in general use we have yet to learn of a single case of cold or attack of the grip having resulted in pneumonia when this remedy was used, which shows conclusively that it is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by H. D. McCulloch Co.

Piles

We are so certain that itching, bleeding and protruding piles can always be relieved and absolutely cured by this ointment that we positively guarantee satisfaction or money refunded.

Danderine

Grows Hair and we can

PROVE IT!

DANDERINE is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow abundant, long, strong and beautiful. It at once imparts a sparkling brilliancy and velvety softness to the hair, and a few weeks' use will cause new hair to sprout all over the scalp. Use it every day, for a short time, after which two or three times a week will be sufficient to complete what you wish to achieve.

NOW at all druggists in three sizes 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle

Danderine enjoys a greater sale than any other hair preparation regardless of kind or brand, and has a much greater sale than all of the other hair preparations in the world.

FREE To those who quickly respond to our acts, we will send a large sample free by return mail to anyone who sends this free coupon to the KNOWLTON DANDERINE COMPANY with their name and address in silver or steel type.

Personal and News Items of More or Less Importance to Readers of The Gazette.

Mrs. J. W. Brown, of this city, has been visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stewart, at Chelsea, for several days.

The little three year old daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Carl Schmidt is well on the road to recovery after an illness of several weeks. Two other children in the family, as well as the father and mother, were also ill for several days.

A special train of eleven passenger cars passed through here over the Central road, last Friday night, enroute from Minneapolis to Chicago. The special had on board several hundred "rooters" for the football game between Minnesota and Chicago universities. Friday afternoon's train, No. 2, also contained a delegation of 280.

Mrs. Ellen Leahy returned last Monday morning from Michigan City, Ind., where she was called ten days before by the fatal illness of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Nick Dunphy, who died a week ago last Saturday. She had suffered from a cancer. Besides the husband, five children are left to mourn. Mrs. Dunphy visited in this city about six years ago and made a number of friends during her stay.

The young man mentioned below is a son of Rev. R. Katerndahl, pastor of the Friedens church, and left here a few months ago for Idaho Falls, Idaho. The item is taken from the Register of that prosperous city: Mr. Richard Katerndahl, of the firm of Katerndahl & Hemminger, attorneys who located here recently for the practice of their profession, coming from Chicago, contemplates building a number of houses for sale or rent, having recognized the great shortage in that respect. He is negotiating for a block of lots across the city canal near the Mission church and will build four modern houses in the near future, with others to follow later.

A. J. Larrabee returned from Portland, Oregon, last Sunday morning, where he spent the past six months visiting with his daughters, one of whom is a teacher in the High school of that city, while the other has held a position of responsibility in the local treasury department for the past eight years. Mr. Larrabee enjoyed his visit greatly, when not ill with eczema and rheumatism, with both of which he was afflicted, and determined to get back to Wisconsin as soon as the rainy season set in. He speaks highly of the thrift, enterprise and sociability of the far western people, but, like most people who have lived long in this state, is glad to get back.

Walker Tack and Richard Grumme were up from North Fond du Lac last Sunday.

Mrs. Gilbert Beck was up from N. Fond du Lac the latter part of last week for a visit among former neighbors.

Theo. Czeskleba and wife, of Amherst, visited over Monday night at R. C. Bloye's home while returning from Montello.

Mrs. Henry Harig, 535 Illinois avenue, left for Oshkosh, Monday morning, to submit to an operation at St. Mary's hospital. She was accompanied by her son, Nicholas.

Mrs. Frank W. Leahy and baby boy, of LaCrosse, are visiting with her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Leahy, in this city, and will also visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Schilling, at the old home in Almond.

Portage County Students at University.

A representative delegation of farm boys from this county will attend the short course in agriculture at the College of Agriculture, University of Wisconsin, which opens December 5th. Those who will return for a second winter's study are Lloyd Lewis and Geo. R. Wagner, both residents of the town of Stockton and whose postoffice address is Stevens Point, route No. 1.

The following have registered for the first year's work: Alfred M. Wroldstad, Amherst Junction; Grace M. Arnett, Stevens Point.

The facilities for instruction at the college will be increased this winter by the $75,000 live stock pavilion now being constructed. The prospects for the year are especially bright and the enrollment for the long and middle courses has increased over 60 per cent. During past years Portage county has sent eleven boys to take work in the short course, and it is hoped that a large delegation will go this winter.

The training given this fourteen weeks' course is intensely practical, adapted to being put into immediate use upon the student's return to the farm. No time is wasted in abstract subjects, but helpful lectures and exercises in stock judging, feeding, dairying, crop production, soil management, agricultural engineering, veterinary science, horticulture, etc., are given.

Other young men desiring to take this course should make early application to Professor D. H. Otis, superintendent of short course, Madison, Wis.

If you want to buy apples by the bushel, go to Jacobson's, where you can get them at 60 cents. Guaranteed good and sound.

YOUNG WOMAN IN TROUBLE.

Anna Fisher, of the Town of Plover, Pleads Guilty to Raising Check From $12.60 to $375.

Miss Anna Fisher, a 17 year old girl whose home has been with Mr. and Mrs. Anton Prain, in the town of Plover, since she was a small child, has evidently got herself into serious trouble. Last Friday forenoon she visited this city and presented a check at the Citizens National bank for the sum of $375. It was signed by Wm. Carley, the Plover potato buyer, and was drawn in favor of A. Prain. The assistant cashier, E. A. Krembs, to whom it was presented, noticed that the check did not look right upon its face and informed the young woman that she would have to get somebody to identify her, either in person or by endorsement, before she could secure the cash.

Shortly after the bank opened in the afternoon, she again presented the check, the cashier, R. B. Johnson, then being at the window. Instead of A. Prain, the name of Anna Shannon had been substituted, and upon the back there appeared the indorsement of Will Branta, of the firm of F. Branta & Son, local grocers. Mr. Johnson asked the young woman to wait a moment, when he stepped to the telephone and was informed by Mr. Branta that he had neither seen nor indorsed the check, and upon communication with Mr. Carley, found that the check he had given Mr. Prain was for the sum of $12.60. Sheriff Guyant was summoned and the young woman was taken to the county jail. Upon being arraigned before Justice Park she entered a plea of guilty to having raised the check and was bound over for trial to the circuit court, her bond being fixed at $1,000.

When leaving the Prain home, Friday morning, she was given the check by Mrs. Prain after considerable coaxing, the latter wishing to have some shopping done in this city, and it was learned that on arriving here she changed the face of the check as above stated. She claims that she was preparing to get married and took this manner of securing money with which to purchase her outfit. Mr. and Mrs. Prain are among the most esteemed people of the town of Plover and have been as parents to the young woman, as stated before, since she was a child. They naturally feel very sorry for her present predicament, but realize that Anna must now take the consequences of her folly.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO.

Articles and Items of News That Appeared in the Columns of The Gazette, Quarter of a Century Ago Today.

N. Jacobs and wife, Mrs. N. Gross and Mrs. E. Tack went to Wausau, Saturday morning, returning Monday evening.

D. H. Vaughn, manager of the Stevens Point boom, informs us that the total amount of logs delivered from the boom to different mills of the city up to Nov. 1, 1883, was 32,143,910 feet. Ed. Betlach, brother of V. Betlach, is now in the city visiting with the latter. He is employed at a government post in Montana, where he receives a good salary and is highly pleased with the country. Ed. resided here about six years ago.

Jas. Cosgrove, one of the Wisconsin Central's most competent carpenters, came near losing the sight of one of his eyes, several days ago, by a piece of emery flying up and striking him in that member, but he visited one of Milwaukee's specialists and the eye is rapidly getting well.

David Stiles McMillan died at his home in this city on the 3rd of November, 1883. He was one of Portage county's earliest residents and had been engaged in the lumber business. Besides his widow he leaves two sons, E. F. and Chas. McMillan, and one daughter, Mrs. S. B. Powell.

Edward Richards, a man about forty years of age and an inmate of the Soldiers' Home in Milwaukee, passed through this city on a Wisconsin Central car, last Thursday evening, and was the object of much curiosity, on account of having shortly before awakened from a thirty days' sleep. During that time he had remained in a trance-like condition, but would turn over in his bed and partake of some food. It is said that on two former occasions Mr. Richards was affected in a like manner, but not for so long at a time.

Delight of the Theatrical World.

When "Miss Petticoats" appeared first in fiction, she created a sensation as an original, charming creature, and made a place for herself in the hearts of the people with her lovable qualities and fascinating career. It was not long before there was a great demand for a play, and George T. Richardson of Boston, the eminent dramatist, who was one of the joint authors of this great story, wrote the dramatic version, and it was first produced at the Boston Theatre some five years ago and made an immediate hit. Critics pronounced it a delightful, original and powerful play, and the public crowded the great theatre nightly. It was written in such a fresh, unique vein that it immediately caught the attention of the old theatre-goers, who are always on the qui vive for a new sensation. They found it in this fresh, sweet play of "Miss Petticoats," where the scenes are laid on the shores of the quaint town of New Bedford and in the fascinating city of Paris, where, in the climax, the heroine appears as the Countess Fornay and dazzles society by her brilliant and artistic entertainments. Her early home in the cabin of the defunct whaler "Harpoon," living with her grandfather and his sea cronies, forms a most attractive picture, and serves as an odd contrast to her future life among the temptations and jealousies always aroused by a beautiful woman. How she overcomes her enemies finally, when she comes into the estates of the Countess Fornay in the final act, makes some very exciting moments, and arouses the audience to wild enthusiasm. A splendid vein of humor, pungent and witty, runs through the whole play, and gives a fresh, delightful atmosphere, that is as wholesome as the real New England people themselves. This great play will be heard at the Grand next Saturday evening, Nov. 7th.

High School Notes.

Millard Hagan and Forest Grant, class '03, visited school Tuesday afternoon.

A mail box has been placed in the upper hall, to receive contributions for "The Nooz."

Harold Kellar and Etta Bloye, class '07, are taking post graduate work in the commercial classes.

The Senior English class have finished "Macbeth" and are taking Franklin's autobiography.

The Senior class went to the Fifth ward voting booth, Tuesday morning, to observe the methods of voting.

The pupils having an average of 93 in any study will be excused from the final examinations at the end of the semester.

Supt. and Mrs. Davis entertained the football squad at an oyster supper, Saturday evening, in honor of the victory over Merrill.

It is probable that an additional teacher will be secured this month to relieve some of the present teachers of their overcrowded classes.

There will be no school on the 19th and 20th of this month, in order to give the teachers an opportunity to attend the state convention in Milwaukee.

Hugh McCamley, a member of the Merrill football team that was defeated last Saturday, remained over Sunday at the home of his uncle, T. E. Cauley.

The football team have two more games scheduled, one with Merrill Saturday, at Merrill, and one on the following Saturday with Grand Rapids in this city.

The Athletic Association held a meeting Tuesday and decided to begin taking measures towards keeping those students out of the gym, who are not members of the association.

The football game between Merrill and Stevens Point High school, at the fair grounds last Saturday, resulted in a victory for Stevens Point by a score of 17 to 4. The game was snappy throughout. The touchdowns were made by Ondracek, Woodworth and Bigelow. Bigelow kicked two goals out of three trials. Wittmann, Merrill's quarterback, secured a fine drop kick in the second half, scoring the only points for his team. Considerable time was taken out during the game on account of the "beefing" on both sides. Capps, class '07, refereed the game, and his decisions were well received.

The aid society of St. Stephen's church, which had been dormant for several months, was revived at a meeting held last Sunday and will give a series of socials during the winter months. The first of these will be held next Wednesday afternoon and evening, Nov. 11th, at the home of Mrs. A. G. Green, 735 Main street. Mrs. Green will be assisted by Mesdames John W. Glennon, D. S. Rice, John E. Burns and Miss Elizabeth Moll. A general invitation is extended.

SOLED SOUTH AS SHE WAS.

All Electoral Votes Go for the Democratic Leader.

Baltimore, Nov. 4.—Maryland's split electoral vote of four years ago, seven Democratic and one Republican, is this year solidly Democratic. The election is close, Mr. Bryan's plurality being about 5,000. The Democrats have gained one congressman. The state delegation in the Sixty-first congress will contain four Democratic representatives and two Republicans. This city has gone Democratic by a close vote.

Austin, Tex., Nov. 4.—William H. Taft did not make as good a showing in this state as President Roosevelt, who polled 51,242 votes in 1904. The vote this year is approximately as follows: Bryan, 220,000; Taft, 20,000; Thomas M. Campbell, Democrat, has been re-elected governor.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 4.—Kentucky has gone Democratic by a vote of 270,000 in a total vote of 430,000. The Republicans have lost two of their congressmen, giving the state now nine Democrats to two Republicans. There was no state election.

Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 4.—Albert W. Gilchrist, Democrat, has been elected governor of Florida, and the Democratic national ticket has carried the state by a majority of 25,000, the Republican vote showing a loss of 3,000 since 1904.

Charleston, S. C., Nov. 4.—The Republican party polled only 2,000 of the 58,000 votes in this state, running slightly behind the figures of four years ago. M. P. Ansel has been re-elected governor without opposition.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 4.—The Old Dominion is still safely within the Democratic ranks by a very large majority. Taft polled only 30,000 votes in a total of 130,000, a Republican loss of 17,880 since 1904.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 4.—Georgia's thirteen electoral votes will be cast for William J. Bryan, and the state's representation will continue solidly Democratic. The state election was held in September. The Taft vote in this state fell 10,000 below that of Mr. Roosevelt, which was 24,000.

St. Louis, Nov. 4.—Missouri has reversed the Republican victory of 1904 and is again in the Democratic ranks by a majority of 30,000. St. Louis went Republican by a small majority. William S. Cowherd has been elected governor.

Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 4.—Bryan, 90,000; Taft, 13,000, are the election figures in this state. Mr. Taft polled 9,472 fewer votes than Mr. Roosevelt did in 1904.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 4.—Tennessee is still strongly Democratic by a majority of 80,000. The Republican vote of 1904 was greatly reduced.

Little Rock, Ark., Nov. 4.—Arkansas has given Mr. Bryan a majority of 30,000, an increase of 12,430 over the vote polled by Mr. Parker in 1904.

Cure Your Dandruff

Why? Because it is annoying, untidy. And mostly, because it almost invariably leads to baldness. Cure it, and save your hair. Get more, too, at the same time. All easily done with Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula. Stop this formation of dandruff!

Does not change the color of the hair. Formula with each bottle. Show it to your doctor. Ask him about it, then go and buy.

The new Ayer's Hair Vigor will certainly do this work, because, first of all, it destroys the germs which are the original cause of dandruff. Having given the scalp a nature completes the cure. The scalp is restored to a perfectly healthy condition.

Dr. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER

For making quickly and perfectly delicious hot biscuits, cake and pastry. Renders the food more tasty, nutritious and wholesome.

No alum, no lime phosphate

The government and food authorities have enabled the housekeeper to protect her family from the alum baking powder. They require that the label shall give her warning. She must buy from the label and avoid any powder which the label does not show to be made from cream of tartar.

Mrs. Henry Curran is entertaining the Duplicate Whist Club this afternoon.

For a good, toothsome apple, go to Jacobson's. He is selling at low prices.

Mrs. O. A. Neumann has been visiting with her sisters at Dale and Appleton for the past few days.

Misses Mary and Cicely Clark went to Montello last Saturday morning and visited among relatives until Monday evening.

J. A. Smith, of Chicago, returned to his home this morning after spending a few days visiting at the home of his brother-in-law, J. W. Dunegan, in this city, coming up to accompany home his wife, who had been here for the past three weeks.

Jos. F. Sims has been visiting at the home of his brother, Pres. John F. Sims, of the Normal, for the past few days. The first named gentleman, who has been engaged in teaching school for several years, expects to soon engage in the practice of law, having recently been admitted to the bar.

Mrs. Jos. M. Marshall entertained at a surprise hallowe'en party for her sister, Miss Clara Krembs, at her home on Division street, last Friday evening. About twenty friends of the young lady were present and they made her the recipient of a miscellaneous shower.

Fred Santoski, the hardware merchant, has moved his family from 538 Main street to the Johnson house at 519 Normal avenue. After some repairs have been made at the Main street residence, Mrs. Ellen Carpenter will take possession of that home, having purchased the property some weeks ago.

The Wapp-si-pin-ne-kans were entertained in a very enjoyable manner at the home of Mrs. A. M. Nelson, last evening. After the usual number of games were played, dainty refreshments were served, the tables being decorated with the club colors, red and green. Election returns were received at intervals throughout the evening, the result of which were somewhat discouraging to the adherents of Bryan and Chafin.
